Team HEO Coaches Announced for 2019 OHL Gold Cup

ABOUT THE EVENT

The OHL Gold Cup is an annual event created to feature Ontario's top Under-16 talent. This event will not only showcase Ontario's talent, but is an evaluation and selection process for Hockey Canada who takes part in the World under 17 Challenge. With 8 teams and 160 players representing HEO, Alliance, GTHL, HNO, NOHA, and the OMHA, the future of Canadian hockey will be on display during the 4 days of the OHL Gold Cup. This year's event will take place May 1st to 5th, 2019 in Kitchener Ontario.

TEAM HEO

Jeff Baker (HEO Manager of Hockey Operations) and Jeff Robert (Team HEO Director of Operations) are pleased to announce the Selection of Jason Clarke as Head Coach. Jason brings a wealth of experience to this Team. Jason is currently the Head Coach of the Carleton Place Canadians of the CCHL1 and has been part of several teams in Hockey Canada's POE. Jason will be joined by Alain Raymond as Assistant Coach. Al is currently a Head Coach with the CIH Academy in the HEO Midget AAA League. Also joining the staff this year will be Dan Sauve. Dan is currently the Head Coach of the Rockland Nationals of the CCHL1

Team HEO would also like to announce that Michel Perron has been brought on board as the Head Equipment Manager. Joining him will be Marie- Pierre Neron as the Athletic Therapist.

Any questions or requests for interviews must be directed through Jeff Robert (Team HEO Director of Operations). See contact information below.
